To whom it may concern:

We look forward to working with your shelter. If you can not find a home for A328135, the Old English Sheepdog, (or any other Old English sheepdog in the future please consider releasing him (them) to our rescue. We registered as a non-profit corporation in the state of Florida as of July 20, 2006. We have applied for 501(c)(3) status. I can also fax a copy of our adoption Release and Indemnity agreement if it is needed.

Following is our mission statement:

We are a non-profit corporation established to organize and maintain a rescue program for abandoned, mistreated, or unwanted Old English Sheepdogs regardless of whether such animals are purebred or registered with the American Kennel Club.

- ◆ To provide ongoing education and counsel to the adopters of the rescue Old English Sheepdogs; and
- ◆ To increase public awareness regarding the proper training, care, and treatment of Old English Sheepdogs.

Any questions, please call me. Thank you.

Best regards,

Marie Harrington, Director
